

Le Davelot - Le Bardy

Le Davelot, Les Bouillots, Mont,
La Seigne, the canal of Nivernais.

12 km

About 4 hours

Walkers or mountain bikes

At the end of this hamlet, take the left path signed « Le Bardy ». 100 m farther you can enjoy the view on the Morvan and its villages (St-Léger-de-Fougeret, Château-Chinon, St-Péreuse). Cross a tiny wood on the right ( the path is uneven).

At « Le Bardy » follow the tarred road till the hamlet of « La Seigne ».

The road veers to the right.

300m farther turn left and walk down to the canal.

Turn right towards the lock of Anizy (n°24).

Before it is possible to cross the little bridge over the canal to go and see the castle of Anizy.

Go past the lock and walk along the canal as far as Panneçot.

When you go out of the camp site, turn right on the road D18. Walk over the river Aron bridge and the canal bridge.

Take the road to Montigny-sur-Canne, which goes past the former school.

Follow it about 2 km as far as the hamlet « Le Davelot ».

Turn right in a little path which goes down to a pond.

Cross the wooden footbridge.

Walk up the path till the next fork.

Turn left in the direction « Les Bouillots ».

At the farm « Les Bouillots » continue on your way along the rough track on the right.

At the first crossing turn right in the wood till the road D18.

Follow it on your left.

200 m farther, take the road to « Mont » and « Limanton » on your right.

600 m farther, the road veers right then left (all around view).

At the intersection of the road to Bernay, turn right and walk till the hamlet of Mont.

